

With the new issue of VSJ, we launch a completely new chapter "Surgical Education", aimed at young miniinvasive surgeons of different specialties. We invite residents, young physicians and students to write and submit a modern and comprehensive review work in different fields of minimally invasive surgery. We offer a fast track editorial processing with full review. We invite all to create the most modern educational database of Videosurgery.